

SELF / SUNDAYS STYLED

SELF/STYLED SUNDAYS IS BACK!

In collaboration with Aston & Fincher, Creative HEAD's digital event for freelance hairdressers is making a return on January 24. Expect a full day of engaging material to start 2021 on the right foot.

It's a mix of masterclasses, business advice and interviews to help you feel connected and engaged in a period where it's all too easy to feel isolated.

We'd like to offer you a FREE day pass to join us, with access to both ticketed masterclasses (and the exclusive discounts from Aston & Fincher!) and all of the free sessions.

CLICK HERE now to receive your free day pass!

10.15 - 11.15
French Balayage

L'Oréal Professionnel Paris are leading the charge with the professional difference to keep clients loyal and engaged. The brilliant Harriet Stokes will be leading this specialist masterclass all about the chic finish of L'Oréal Professionnel French Balayage techniques.

11.30 - 12.30

All Things Manic Panic

Hosted by Manic Panic educator and ambassador Vicki Hoskin, this masterclass features expert insight on Manic Panic's rainbow of formulas and how to create seamless blends with creative colour.

2 - 2.15

The Importance of Community

This business session will show you the importance of community when working as an independent stylist. FHA founder Sheila Abrahams and member Cristina Fazzone discuss how the FHA offers freelance artists a community hub, providing support, business advice, training, networking and so much more.

2.30 - 3.15

The Business of Change

Mark Woolley is one of UK hairdressing's most exciting entrepreneurs. Hear all about his journey in an exclusive Self/Styled Sunday interview.

4 - 5

PANEL TALK: The Wall

We've all come up against those hurdles which seem unsurmountable. We speak to three industry veterans who will be talking about their own experiences. Featuring Ashleigh Hodges, Casey Coleman and Carolyn Newman.